FIRE.—The alarm of last night was caused by a chimney bursting out in Place, it was extinguished before the engine arrived.

THE WOMAN.—Alfred O'Mahony, the tea-seller, and the shoemaker, Conney, were all reported as being tolerably well yesterday.

REMANENT.—Mike Cotton, charged with shooting Eugene Soule, the French Consul, was yesterday taken out for examination, and remanded for a further hearing.

TRIAL OF BARRELL.—The trial of T. W. Barnes for the murder of Headman occupied the criminal court yesterday. The case was expected to be over by noon.

A DISEASE.—Dr. Ziegler yesterday met a man who had the signs of a disease from the Woods. General, he was found at the door of a house where he was painting, and from there carried to prison.

DRUGS.—John C. Weller, with participation in the fight last night, was also a victim of the day, as several members were yesterday discharged from command in self-defense.

GENERAL INVESTIGATOR.—Gandy, all other members of the Independent Guard, Capt. Gandy's company, are earnestly requested to attend a business meeting of the company to-night, as matters of vital interest in the company will be presented for consideration.

THE GUARD.—Mr. Underwood, who formerly held the office of chief of police and city marshal, and whose administration gave great satisfaction, is a candidate for the office of chief of police. He has recently expelled the chief of city marshal with great credit to himself.

THE GUARD.—John C. Weller, who was arrested from jail on Thursday for shooting a man he was arresting, was recommended recovery, charged with attempting to pass forged money, and was sent a black dress blues coat. His trial was held at two-thousand hours in each case.

THE GUARD.—The leaders are requested to their neighbors, whose paper has been highly praised for the past few days, that they will be found ready to give a new effort, and will, after this week, have a press of their own, when such difficulties will be averted.

FEDERAL PARADE.—The Memphis Advertiser, Monday, in its news says:

"There have been quite a number of our traditional parades who have come off to the war.

The northern parades had much to do with the safety of those who have enlisted in the army, and did much to help the cause.
